Mr. Charlie Wilson
Route # 4
Lexington, Tennessee

Dear Brother Wilson:

Your recent letter concerning our proposed gospel meeting at Fairview has been received. I can appreciate the difficulties encountered in keeping preachers scheduled for coming meetings. I am happy to know that the brethren there do try to keep meetings scheduled some years ahead.

You mentioned the second Lord's Day in August of 1965 as a date. Unfortunately, I can only be with you during 1965 one full Sunday. This means that I could begin the meeting on Sunday night, August 1 and continue through the next full Sunday, August 8 or I could begin the meeting on Sunday morning, August 8 and continue through Saturday evening, August 14. Please let me know as soon as possible if one of these dates is acceptable. I send all of you my bvery best regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
